

Storyboard exercise

How can university teachers use AI or other technologies in the classroom while adhering to the EU principle of diversity, non-discrimination and fairness? Imagine an ideal implementation of the principle and draw it in the form of a storyboard!

- Start by imagining your characters: What is their background?
- What happens in your story?
- Which important steps do the characters go through?
- What is the ending?

Storyboard exercise

How can university teachers use AI or other technologies in the classroom while adhering to the EU principle of diversity, non-discrimination and fairness? Imagine an ideal implementation of the principle and draw it in the form of a storyboard!

- Start by imagining your characters: What is their background?
- What happens in your story?
- Which important steps do the characters go through?
- What is the ending?

